This Play as an imitation is an excellent performance, and at the age it was written might well surprize Mr J. — even many of Shaks^{peare} beauties are closely copied, but although evidently a ^{good} copy of a great Master, — the same talent that composed it, may at a mature age bring it so near to perfection as to render it a very good acting stick Play — Mr J. can and ought to make it such after what has been said.
